

Frances B. Borrego

August 7, 1922 - December 2, 2025

Frances B. Borrego, 103 years old, of San Antonio, peacefully passed away, surrounded by her family, early hours of the morning on Tuesday, December 02, 2025.

Frances was born on August 7, 1922, to Alfredo and Tomas Bortello in San Antonio, Texas. Frances had 3 sisters, Cora (deceased), Virgie (deceased) and Marie (deceased).

Frances schooled in San Antonio and went on to nursing school where she received her nursing certificate. Frances became a civilian nursing assistant at Lackland and Brooks Air Force Bases in San Antonio. After Frances' government career was over, she dedicated the rest of her nursing career as a volunteer in the American Red Cross.

Frances married John Borrego, during her time in nursing school. Frances had a son, 4 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, and 6 great great-grandchildren.

During Frances' retirement, she enjoyed time with her son, grandchildren and church family.

At the age of 99 years old, Frances made the tough decision due to her increased need of care, to move to Dallas to where she was cared for by her grandchildren and to be closer to her great-grandchildren, and to where she lived the remainder of her years.
