

Frances Wylene Galloway

April 18, 1930 - May 15, 2021

Frances Wylene Galloway went to be with the Lord on May 15, 2021, at the age of 91, in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on April 18, 1930 in Atlanta, Georgia. She is preceded in death by her parents, Wiley H. and Frances Viola Fralix; brother, Charles E. Fralix; sister, Agnes O. Warren, and son, Jeffery Wade Galloway. Frances is survived by her loving children, David William Galloway (Debra), Wanda Beatrice Galloway, Lorinda Wylene Massey (Gary) and Karla Allen (Bo); 11 grandchildren, Coy Galloway (Deanna), Ty Galloway (Lacie), Ygnacio M. Gutierrez (Veronica), Christina Wylene Crouch (Mark), Dawn Finley (Eddie), Elizabeth Ann Taylor (David), Sarah Reel (Robert), Sonny Galloway (Kimberly), Jessica Galloway, Jaimie Galloway and Chelsea Volling (Luc); 27 great-grandchildren, 13 great-great-grandchildren and other extended family members.

Frances was the life of the party! In her younger years, she loved playing the guitar and singing. As a teenager she sang with the Texas Top Hands band and was nicknamed "Little Blue Jeans". She loved playing bunko, cards and dominos and taught her grandchildren how to play.

After receiving an education, Frances enjoyed a bookkeeping career. In her retirement years, word finds and watching westerns/mysteries were her favorite hobbies.

While Frances had a strong, spunky and cheeky nature, she was also very loving and a kid at heart. She loved playing with all her grandchildren and looked forward to opening her presents every birthday and Christmas.

She was the matriarch of her family – a mother to all. She helped raise her grandchildren and even great grandchildren.

Frances touched so many lives. She will always be remembered with fond, fun and loving memories. Her family will always carry her close to their hearts and love her, bigger than the sky!

“ *Aunt Frances, thank you for placing my Tiny Tears baby doll on a chair next to my hospital bed where I could see her, even though I wasn't allowed to hold her under my oxygen tent. Thank you for spoon-feeding me my dinner the night Mama was running late, even though you tricked me into eating the cooked carrots, which I thought I hated. Thank you for the gift of your musical talent, which I might have inherited from you and carried with me years later into the jazz ensemble of the University of Miami. It was a far cry from Roy Orbison and Willie Nelson, but it was still good sounds. And thank you mostly for the wonderful women (and their husbands and children) in your family who I now include in my own. I'm glad you are at peace. I hope you have seen my father and other lost, loved ones. And as Bo said, we will see you later. Love always, Wylene Kay Weiss
(It feels funny to have to specify "which" Wylene! It's a first for me.)*
