

Frances Marie Haag

January 26, 1915 - December 22, 2014

Frances Marie Elder Haag, 99, went home to be with the Lord on December 22, 2014. She was born on January 26, 1915, in Cheapside, Texas, to Kitty and Mansel Elder. She was married to her husband Herman Joseph Haag, Sr., for 60 years and a member of Bethany Presbyterian Church in San Antonio for 85 years. She is preceded in death by her husband Herman, her sister Maurine Bowers, brothers Mansel Elder and Lawrence Elder, grandchildren Debbie Fortune, Kirk McCameron, Darryl Haag, and Aaron Haag, nephews Chris Bowers and Billy Elder, niece Renee Schultz, and grand-niece Ginger Bowers. She is survived by daughter Kathleen McCameron and her husband Mac, son Donald Haag and his wife Debbie and son Herman Joseph Haag, Jr. and his wife Jean Ann. She is also survived by four grandchildren, nine great grandchildren, and six great-great grandchildren, along with loving nieces, nephews, and family of the heart. Frances loved gardening and cultivated a yard full of booming plants year-round. Each spring and summer, her landscape was as bright and colorful as an Easter basket. She was a great cook and enjoyed preparing delicious meals for family gatherings during the holidays. She enjoyed arts and crafts and loved to fish. She loved playing her favorite card game, "Pitch," with family members who delighted in her competitive spirit. Frances will be remembered for her deep love of family, for her keen sense of humor and for the caring life she embodied and quietly modeled for others.
