In 1942 in Michigan, Frances wed Manuel G. Herrera, they were both migrant workers from San Antonio. They settled in Michigan. Four sons were born by 1948 while holding various jobs, her husband became interested in building a house with Frances assisting; they taught themselves as they never attended high school. They continued building houses single-handed and started selling and trading houses on land contracts. After 50 years, they decided to relocate to their hometown San Antonio; through the years Frances helped care for her mother-in-law Juanita and older sister Angelita. They both helped many people get into affordable homes and assisted needy people who asked their help.

The family wishes to extend their heartfelt thanks for the support of all mom's friends, Vista Hospice loving staff, Father Sonny at St. James Church. Muchas Gracias to her grandson Lucas (Charissa) and granddaughter Christina, who flew down from Michigan; caretaker Olivia and son Ben made the floral arrangements, God Bless You Readers! Thanks to Olivia's family, friends for food preparation.
