

Francine (Kraus) Luther

September 21, 1950 - December 2, 2020

Francine (Kraus) Luther passed away on December 2, 2020 after a near 6-year battle with cancer. Francine was born on September 21, 1950 in San Antonio, Texas. She graduated from St. Gerard High School and went on to work as a data clerk for Southwestern Bell from 1968 to 1999. She only retired because the San Antonio Spurs won their first NBA Title and she didn't want to wake up early the next day after games!

Francine is preceded in death by parents Francis and Margie Kraus; siblings, Margaret Piechnik and Tim Kraus.

She is survived by her children Cheryl Luther, Susan Lozano (Xavier), David Luther II, Sarah Garcia (Mando), Denise Longoria (John); Grandchildren, Ashley Benavides (Leroy), Daniel, Nathaniel & Leiley Luther, Arianna, Evelyn, Mando III & Lukas Garcia, Emmalynn & Annalisa Longoria; Great-grandson, Logan Benavides; siblings, Sister Colette Kraus SSND, Barbara Wilcox (Tom), David Piechnik, Mike Kraus, Tommy Kraus (Tish), Pat Kraus (Terri), Beverly Kraus, Theresa Thomas (Doug), Liz Munoz (JR), Paula Reyna and many cousins, nieces, nephews, and loved ones.

Francine enjoyed babysitting Kaileigh and Charles IV. She also enjoyed visits from Cindy Cruz (practically granddaughter) and her family.

A very special thanks to Dr. Sushma Vemulapalli, MD and staff for their excellent care.

In lieu of flowers please make donation to Immaculate Conception, 305 N.

“ I just wanted to share the way Francine taught me forgiveness. No matter what anyone ever did to her, she always forgave them. She never spoke a bad word about anyone. She set such an example in forgiveness. Also she always always made me feel special. Anytime she would see me she would have the biggest sweetest welcome smile. I loved it and her. Thanks Fran. Tell we meet again. Love ya
