

Francisca Guzman de Rivera

April 2, 1936 - April 7, 2008

Señora Francisca Guzman de Rivera was born on April 2, 1936 to Augustin Guzman and Juanita Huerta de Guzman in the small town of Anahuac, Nuevo León, Mexico. Arriving as the youngest of 8 siblings, she was known to many as simply "Quica." In 1955 she found the completion of her heart and soul when she wed Tomás Rivera, and together the two created a family bond that would span the globe: 10 children, 23 grandchildren, 6 great-grandchildren, 1 family. A loving wife and devoted mother who supported every child in each path they had chosen throughout their lives and was always there to pick them up if they had fallen. She possessed a mother's heart and a mother's eyes that embraced forgiveness and love. She leaves behind her wisdom and knowledge from the kitchen to life, exemplifying the true meaning of a mother's love.
