“ Remembering my Uncle Frank on the 2nd anniversary of his death today. Though separated by miles I'm grateful I could have one last conversation with him before he passed away and that we ended with a mutual "I love you," before we said good-bye. So many beautiful memories of good times with Uncle Frank, especially during the family holidays, special celebrations and baseball games. Oh how he loves his baseball. And what a sense of humor. I still remember and retell some of the jokes he shared with us. Love you, Uncle Frank. I know you're up in heaven impressing God with your baseball moves.
