“ Dear Cousins and Aunt Margie. While it has been many year since I last saw Tio Pancho and all of you, I have often thought of you. It is the memories and sense of family that sustains us thru the difficult times. I still miss my mother, your Aunt Lucha ev

“ In the 1970's I had the privilege of working with the Late Araiza, as Pete Mendiola used to call him, in the composing room of the Expres/News. Frank is probably one of the last of the printers from the old schold. May God bless his soul.

“ *Dear Ariza Family,
We are so sorry to hear about your father. God rest his soul. I am sure he is at a much better place now. Just knowing he is worry free, and pain free. How good God is. God will give you all the strength you need to go forth.*
