“ Our hearts go out to you Nancy, on the loss of your dear Frank. What a kind, sweet man he was - always willing to lend a helping hand, always with a smile! What a blessing you and Frank were to Mom and Dad over the years. They could not have asked for better neighbors. Words cannot express what your kindness has meant to our family.

Big Hugs, Much Love and Endless Prayers from Terri and Pete Binkley with your former neighbor and dear friend, Betty Carney.

A great loss to the Knoedler family in Venango, PA. Frank was a neighbor and friend to our family. Nancy and he visited us in Venango after he had moved to San Antonio. It was so good to see them. Our sincere love and prayers for Nancy.

I worked with Frank for several years in San Antonio. He was a wonderful human being with a great sense of humor. I remember his love of aircraft. He helped start my interest in genealogy, which I still enjoy today.

Rest in peace Frank.
