

Frank T. De La Rosa III

May 1, 1981 - June 17, 2021

Mr. Frank Teofilo De La Rosa III, a resident of San Antonio, Texas passed away unexpectedly in his sleep on June 17, 2021 at the age of 40.

Frank is survived by: son-Hayden De La Rosa, parents Frank and Mary De La Rosa, sisters: Lynnette (Estaban) Lopez, Jeanette (Paul) Watje, Ex-Spouse Aimee Dunham, maternal grandmother Maria Magdalena Murphy-Diaz. Nieces and Nephews: Kristina Mendiola-Velasquez (David), Fernando (Denise) Herrera, Jonathan (Anna) Watje, Breanna (Jordan) Pirch, Christopher (Glenna) Watje, Stephan Lopez, Ashley Lopez, Amaris Watje, Josiah Watje, Timothy Watje, Kimberly Watje, Abigail Watje, Benjamin Watje, Sophia Watje. In addition Frank was loved by numerous aunts, uncles and great-nieces and great-nephews.

At a very early age Frank acquired his passion for football and golf. While in attendance at St. Anthony Catholic High School he was able to excel as a member of both football and golf teams, earning numerous awards both locally and at the state level. Upon his graduation, he earned the opportunity to further his athletic adventures at the collegiate level.

However Frank's greatest title earned was "DAD." He was a devoted father to his son, Hayden. Hayden was able to see and learn his father's passion for football and golf. In life they shared everything; They were each other's best friend.

When he was still able to volunteer Frank would coach football for various nonprofit organizations. In addition he had encouraged his nephews to learn about golf.

Frank was a very special person with the biggest heart. His smile would light up any room and he will forever be missed.
