

Frank T. Garcia

October 2, 1934 - February 24, 2024

Frank T. Tovar was born in Seguin, TX, on October 2, 1934 and passed away in San Antonio, TX, February 24, 2024, at the age of 89. Dad and Mom married in November 1954 and had 3 sons David, Frank and Jacob Garcia. Dad worked for civil service for 30 years and also had other jobs to provide for the family. He and Mom enjoyed traveling, music and dancing until Dad went blind and then mostly he remained at home listening to his music and news shows. Dad had a quick wit, great memory, sense of humor and enjoyed conversations and listening to music with his family and friends. Since he lost his sight, his other senses were heightened and he was intrigued by all the advancements of technology that occurred since he lost his sight. Frank was preceded in death by his wife Anna Maria Sandoval Garcia, son David S. Garcia, parents Pedro Garcia & Juanita Tovar Garcia, sisters Esther Garcia, Elida Garcia and brother Daniel Garcia. He is survived by sons Jacob S. Garcia, Frank Garcia & wife Margie Garcia, daughter in law Amelia Garcia, sister Ofelia Solis Torres, brothers Joel Garcia, granddaughters Brittney Garcia & Megan Garcia.

Special thanks to Alicia Garcia, neighbor who helped both my Mom and Dad - especially Dad after my Mom had passed. She was a great caregiver and friend to my father. Also, thanks to Grace Garcia (Circle of Life Hospice) who went above and beyond with care for my father and help direct my brother and myself through this difficult time. We will miss him Dearly.
