“ Sending our deepest condolences on the passing of our dear Compadre Frank Palacios. We have some wonderful memories from our early childhood, school years and when he met and married our Comadre Santa. Frank was a kind, loving and hard working man that adored his wife and family meant so much to him. He was a respectable and caring man and spending time with his family and grand- children was so important to him. We will cherish the beautiful memories that we have of our Compadre and May he Rest in Peace. Gone too soon but will never be forgotten.
