“ Frank Vasquez was first boss I had the pleasure of working for at Frank's moving Co. With wife Dolores he was the first power house for God, he was the most hard working man and operated under the hands of God . I truly will miss but I know he ran His the race with honor and dignity a mighty man of God. Love you Frank rest with all our family that went before you ..... my deepest condolences for Dolores Vasquez love Jacqueline Martinez

“ Frank moved us 6 times... at our first meeting he told me of the coincidence of knowing my family... we shared stories. We shared our time in Vietnam. He was as honest as they come as is his entire family. Our first move he told me to buy my own boxes because if he provided them he would have to charge. Un hombre de Dios y un buen amigo... Rest now my friend, thank you for the memories.
