

Frank Escobedo Villanueva

June 29, 1961 - September 25, 2024

Frank E. Villanueva Jr. passed on to be with the Lord early Wednesday morning, September 25, 2024 at the age of 63. Frank was born June 29, 1961 in San Antonio, TX.

He is preceded in death by his parents Maria Alicia “Licha” and Frank Villanueva Sr. and his grandparents Felise and Jesus Villanueva.

Frank is survived by his son, Frank Villanueva III and daughter Zoé Michele Villanueva; brother Richard Villanueva and sister Diana Landeros (Albert) along with nieces Erica Peña and Daniela Alghamdi (Saleh) and nephew Albert Landeros Jr.

Frank was a proud Home Depot associate for 22 years. Prior to his cancer diagnosis he was a department supervisor running multiple departments. He was a graduate of St. Mary’s University where he was a member of the Sigma Beta Chi Fraternity. He was a participating alumni and remained connected with his fraternity brothers. He was a proud graduate of Central Catholic High School, Class of 1979. He was actively involved in the extracurricular activities of his class, participating annually in Fiesta San Antonio and other fundraising events.

Our father will be fondly remembered for his hard work, kindness and deep love for his family. He was strong, diligent and always playful. He enjoyed fishing at the coast in his free time, when he wasn't cheering on the Cowboys. As a devoted Catholic, he lived by faith, instilling his strong faith in his children.

His memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him. Frank is in the best of hands now; he is with the Lord. God bless him. Until we meet again.
