“ Uncle Frank Wong. Even though I did not share much time with Uncle Frank, the last time was at aunt Esther's memorial, I find Uncle Frank to be engaging and memorable. Aunt Gladys, Ronald, Dean, Carolyn and Peggy my thoughts are with you. Please say not in grief he is no more, let's live our lives in thankfulness because Uncle Frank was a good man.

Sincerely,

Robert Lam

“ Uncle Frank used to scare me when I was a little girl. When I look back, he was not given a book on how to raise children. He did his best as an immigrant from China without any family to help him here in the United States.

I am so happy he lived almost to his 96th birthday. Uncle Frank, Aunt Gladys and I shared some good times going to doctor appointments, shopping and lunches.

I feel honored he was my Uncle. I enjoyed the times I shared with him. May he pass on to the hands of God.

*Affectionately,
Vickie*
