“ I remember the day I met Franklin! We only spent a few days together but he was exactly what his family explains, the kindest soul who I could tell felt everything so deeply. He was full of love (and quite the flirt) haha his smile was infectious and genuine. I could see the child within and had some great conversations in the little time we spent. He was so very kind & comforting :(we had to go our separate ways but I never forgot about Franklin and would check in on him from time to time. I'm deeply saddened to hear this news. I have no idea what happened but condolences to his loved ones. He was amazing! I cannot get this or him off of my mind--PRAYERS ♡

“ I remember how every time I came to midnight rodeo, Frank would run up to me and give me the biggest hug and asked me how I was feeling that day. It started during the time I had breastcancer.
Frank always made me feel so very special. I'll never forget you buddy, that's for sure. Rest easy sweet man ❤️

Love ya,
Grace
