

Fred S. Benavides

April 23, 1936 - September 24, 2008

Benavides

Fred Sanchez Benavides, born April 23, 1936, age 72 of San Antonio, died September 24, 2008. Sweet perfection, he met mom at sixteen and committed his life to her and their children, fifty-six years to be exact. Dad demonstrated and instilled in us the fundamentals of life; faith, compassion, honesty, loyalty and work ethic. Employed by Church's Fried Chicken for 42 years, the most continuous years of any employee with the company. He was dedicated and touched the lives of his employees along the way. The only surviving man in his family, son of Federico and Maria Benavides/ Stepfather Felix Torres, he would succeed in continuing the Benavides family name. Survived by his wife Mary Louise Benavides, children, Fred Jr., Eddie, Edna, David, Andy, Adam; grandchildren, Freddie II, Esther Marie, Michael, Nicole, Desiree, Edward Jr., Faith, Jeffrey, David, Jr., Jacob, Augusto, Taylor, Gabriella, Jeremy, Cain; great grandchildren, Freddie IV, Nicholas, Christopher, Gabriela, Gabriel, Lupe Jr., Michaela, Tristan, Nathan, Jait, Jeffrey Ray; son-in law, Ralph Deleon; Daughters-in-law; Norma Romero, Sylvia Ojeda, Annette Coronado, Yvette Villarue, Amelia Olivares; sisters, Ofelia Jones of Covington, Washington, and Elida Torres of San Antonio; deceased sister, Maria Louisa Molina Licha, Edna; deceased brother, Gilbert; step-brothers, Felicito Torres, Gilbert Torres;

step-sister, Helen Sifuentes. A special thanks to Dr. Abuabara, Dr. Guerra, Dr. Gladys Rodriguez and their staff for their honesty, efforts and continued support in the battle our dad fought until the end. God bless us all and may he rest in peace. Amen.
