“ *Twenty-four MAY Twenty-eleven
We never got to meet before
Excited that our eyes both blue
Never thought I'd see his door
Then one day the call came through Your dad just called he got the note
Fearfull will he except me
Or maybe more so that he won*

“ I have never met a man who was so honorable that he epitomized ideals of our nation. Fairness, equality, integrity, and responsibility were no doubt his hallmarks in which he used to engage us to be who we say we are. It is rare in this day and age that a “ Kristina, Sheila, Tommy and Jerry,

How do you say goodbye to such a wonderful person. I know you will miss him as I have over the past few years. He was a good friend and his passing will leave a great void in every life he touched. I pray for you

“ Dear Christina,
We are so sorry to learn about your Dad's passing. We know you probably don't remember us, but you and your dad visited our family when you were very young , maybe 4 or 5. Your Dad was very kind to our son,Barrett, when he was in San Anto

“ Kristina,

I was so sorry to hear of your dad's passing. He was very proud of you and was really excited to hear that you were expecting another baby and that you were so happy.

He was one of my first cuz's and my mom Ruth Cox'sGambers was his aunt “ Christina, I'm terribly sad to hear about Fred's passing. I know he will leave a big hole in your heart as well as in Antonio's heart. Fred was so proud of Antonio. He just beamed when he spoke of him or showed you a photo of him.

We will miss Fred al
