“ Dad,
I will miss our nightly phone calls. I still find myself reaching for the phone and dialing your number. We covered many topics in our nightly chats, didn't we Dad? We caught up on family, current events, presidential race and the pandemic we were currently living through. I could hear the excitement and laughter in your voice when I asked about Mel, your dog. You loved sharing on his daily comical antics. You two were inseparable and he was always by your side. I am so glad he gave you so much joy.

Thank you Dad for everything you did for me and my brothers and sisters. You were a man of faith with strong family values which has carried over to your children and grandchildren.

Dad, give Mom a hug. Tell her we love her and miss her. Remind her that we still miss her homemade tamales at Christmas time.

Dad, don't worry about us. We will look after each other. Love you Dad. Rest in peace.

“ So many great memories of Mr. & Mrs. Gaona growing up. I was blessed to be able to spend a lot of time at their house. To see the commitment and love that they shared with one another, was something very special. He was a man of integrity with a strong set of family values. He was a man who stood for what he believed in and would never compromise his beliefs. He will be dearly missed. GOD bless his soul.

“ Didn't meet Mr Gaona personally, but know his son David. He raised a great son. That is in part, a reflection of who he was.

Rest in Peace. 🕊

My love to the family. 🌹
