

Fred J. Reina

May 22, 1938 - November 16, 2024

Fred J. Reina, a beloved father, grandfather, brother, cousin, and friend/golfing buddy, who was called home to his Heavenly Father on November 16, 2024. Born on May 22, 1938, in San Antonio, TX, he was a man whose charm, quick wit, and gentle sarcasm brought joy to all who knew him.

A man of great determination, Fred honorably served his country in the Marine Reserves and the active Navy. He carried the values of loyalty, perseverance, and humility throughout his life.

After his military service, Fred poured his passion and dedication into founding Alamo City Construction, a business he and his father built with hard work, vision, and pride. The company became more than a profession; it was a labor of love and a testament to his enduring dedication. Today, the company's legacy continues through his son; Mark Reina and his grandson; Mason Reina.

Fred was a cornerstone of his family, who he cherished. Known for his sweet spirit and sharp humor, he could light up a room with his stories and his infectious laugh. Whether offering a kind word or a clever joke, he left a mark on the hearts of those around him.

Beyond his professional achievements, Fred found joy on the golf course. A true enthusiast of the sport, he spent countless hours playing alongside his many golfing buddies, who he respected and valued.

He is survived by his first wife; Olivia Gonzales Reina, his children; Fredrick Joseph Reina Jr., Frank James Reina and his wife Luz Reina, Margaret Ann Reina, Edward Jay Reina, Mark Anthony Reina and his wife Venus R. Reina, Norma Jean Gomez, Andrew Louis Reina, and Melissa Marie Saenz; his 16 grandchildren; his 9 great grandchildren; and his sister; Beatrice Saxon (Bee Rice). He is also survived by his stepchildren and step-grandchildren from his second marriage to his late wife Minerva Reina. He is predeceased by his mother; Concepcion Ramirez Reina, father; Louis Angel Reina, stepmother; Dolores (Lola) Reina, and his siblings; Hope, Dora, Connie, and Louie.

Fred will be dearly missed, but his legacy of love, charm, humor, and service will live on in all who were fortunate enough to know him

Our deepest condolences go out to the Reina family on the passing of there Father & my closest friend Freddy. It was my honor to have known this man for 40 years. We met at Brackenridge Golf Course & became the best of friends. We putted every day except weekends & had a blast. I will miss my friend & but I am comforted in knowing that you are in presence of our Heavenly Father. Semper Fi Marine. John & Lupe Gonzales

“ Mr. Reina has been in my life since I was a child. He was at every family function at Uncle Mark and Aunt Venus' home, loving on his grandkids. Even though we weren't blood related, it felt like we were. Though we are grieving, we are also comforted by his testimony that he accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior and now he is home. Love you Mr. Reina!

“ Fred was our wonderful next door neighbor who was always in a cheerful mood and with whom my wife and I were always happy to chat with. Typically, we would catch each other when checking our mailboxes, taking a few minutes to catch up, share laughs, and discuss life. We will miss having him as our neighbor and offer our condolences to the Reina family.

It was fond of you guys and always said that y'all are very good people.

Mark Reina - November 26, 2024 at 09:26 PM

I'm glad I had some final words with him the day before his last. I know we were both in agreement of the wonderful times we spent together since childhood and all through our lives, we always talked about the great times and things we did together. I also assured him that it was not the end that matters because it was the start to the best of what we lived for going home where we choose to be. With me following not to far behind. We live and die for God and through him Jesus showed us the way to real living and happiness. God Bless Fred (Pico) his nickname as a kid and (Raulito) me as a kid , to the last day we answered each other in our regular phone calls. Thank you Fred for being my (Primo Hermano) Adios , God Bless us all. 🙏

“ Mr Fred (as my girls would call him) was our amazing neighbor for the past almost 15 years! He was always there to lend a helping hand, remind me to put my trash out and was there to wipe away my tears when I needed a hug on a hard day. He will be greatly missed 😞 thank you to the Reina Family for sharing your loving dad with my girls and I.
