Fred E. Waclawczyk, 79, beloved husband, father, grandfather, and brother, went to be with the Lord on April 25, 2024. Fred was born March 5, 1945, in San Antonio, Texas.

He is survived by his loving wife of 55 years, Carol M. He was preceded in death by his parents Fred Sixtus Waclawczyk, Sr. and Cecilia Waclawczyk Duelm, stepfather Fritz Duelm; siblings Norman Waclawczyk and Vivian Waclawczyk Polasek who is survived by her husband David Polasek.

After attending La Salle Catholic High School, Fred worked at City Public Service (CPS) for 38 years and retired as a Purchasing Manager in 2004. Fred was a very proud Marine veteran who served in the Marine Corp. during the Vietnam era (Semper Fi)! Fred loved God and spending time with his wife, children and grandchildren. He loved his morning cup of coffee while he watched the birds he raised and cared for, especially the return of his beautiful purple martins every year. Fred also enjoyed hunting with family at his hunting lease, gambling in Las Vegas and Wendover, taking cruises with family and friends, and spending time at his and Carol's condo in Port Aransas, Texas. Lastly, he always looked forward to the monthly lunch with his lifelong buddies where they would catch up and reminisce about the good old days.

“ Fred hired me and was the first boss I had at CPS. My office was right next to his for 5 years before he retired. Fred, having done almost every Purchasing related job at CPS, was instrumental in whatever success I was able to achieve during those years. Quite a number of years later, I was coaching CYO baseball and ran into him at a game at the Holy Spirit ball field and we had the opportunity between games to catch up. My heartfelt condolences go out to Carol and the Family. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him.

“ Fred lived and grew up in the same neighborhood. He was my 2nd cousin, as well as Chester Richter, and close friend Don Polson living in the neighborhood. We grew up in a different time than now. Fred learned and gave his love to his family. I spoke with Fred several times over our adult years, and he always spoke about his family and how he was so proud of them. Fred will be missed here, but he is now with his beloved family in that better place.
