“ Dear Sharon,
I want to extend my deepest sympathies on the loss of your mother.
I also wanted to let you know that I was thinking of you and all my prayers are with you to help get you through this sad time.

“ Sister Girl Be.Fri.,
I love you. I loved Fronnie. I will always be here for you. There aren't enough words for me to express my sadness for you but my actions and deeds can and will express my true, deep feelings for you and your family.
Love always

“ Dear Sharon,

The one time I met your mom and her twin, they both blew me away with how much positive energy they had playing those games they always played. They are both your guardian angels now. Your mother lived a long and great life and has every

“ Sharon,
Please except my condolences on the passing of your mother. I know that you loved and cared for her very tenderly. And although I never meet her, she sounds like a wonderful person.

May God Bless you and watch over you in the days to come.
