“ I thought of Gary ... when I read this ... and I know ... this is what he would like to say.

When I am Gone

When I come to the end of my journey

And I travel my last weary mile,

Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned

And remember only my smile.

Forget unkind words I have spoken:

Remember some good I have done,

Forget that I ever had heartache

And remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I have stumbled and blundered

And sometimes fell by the way.

Remember I have fought some hard battles and won,

Ere the close of day,

Then forget to grieve for my going ,

I would not have you sad for a day,

But in the summer just gather some flowers

And remember the place where I lay

And come in the evening

When the sun paints the sky in the west,

Stand for a few moments beside me

And remember only my best.

Remembering the Good Times - God Bless You and Family ... your brother by another mother ...

Mark- Faye Turner

Tell the Old Man and the Old Lady when you get there to keep practicing and keep my seat warm – and when I get there – You and I will beat their socks off - in cards. Push-ka-lo-tae.

“ Oh my dear brother how I miss you so much. I have so many wonderful memories of you. We had such good times together and we'd have everyone around us laughing. I was so excited you would coming to Rockport to visit us so you and Mike could go fishing. Mike was excited to go fishing with you. I love to fish, which I got from our wonderful father and my awesome brother. I know you will be by my side helping me bring in the Big zones. You are going to bring me good luck brother. I know you are in heaven with mom and dad and all that left this earth before you. I have no doubt that you are anywhere but heaven Gary. Give mom and dad hugs from us and we will see you in heaven some day. I love you Gary!!!!!!!

“ oh my uncle how i miss you. i love you tremendously. i love you so much! i know these past 3 weeks were very hard on you. i as a nurse saw and knew you weren't okay... but me as your Niece didn't want to except it. My last favorite memory of you will be Saturday 9/22/18 when me and mom went over to visit with you i had Jason with us and he ran in and gave you a high five and wanted to see Gary's deer. you lifted him up on your shoulder and Jason and you had the biggest smiles on your faces. Something told me i needed to take that picture. I ignored it, i thought i would have more opportunities to take pictures with you since i was getting my real uncle back after 11 years. i love you and i will always love you!
