“ Gary and your mom were the best supporters a coach could have. Remember seeing them in the stands for all the games offering support and encouragement. Many wonderful memories of your dad and you from Clark. Thoughts and prayers for you and your family.

“ I met Gary through USA Volleyball as referees. We initially met as roommates for a volleyball tournament. I found out then that he knew my father and father-in-law through his business in Klasing Oil. What a small world!!

Gary was always kind, pleasant and had a nice word to share with everyone.

He will definitely be missed.

“ My condolences to the family. I refereed volleyball off and on with Gary for the last 12+ Years. It was always a good time and I don't ever remember us having a “bad” match. He's the kind of individual that leaves a good impression and imprint on all he met.

“ Oh the stories I could tell about how this wonderful man touched my life. Through his coaching he gave me direction and a purpose, as a parent he showed me love and dedication, as a father figure he showed me what true love looked like, as a friend he was steadfast and selfless. I made him laugh and he helped make me who I am today. Thank you, Coach.
