

Gary Lynn Shaner

November 18, 1946 - April 9, 2013

Gary Lynn Shaner, dearly beloved father, grandfather and great grandfather joined his savior Jesus Christ on April 9, 2013. He was born on November 18, 1946 in San Antonio, TX to Warren and Lois Shaner. A graduate of Lee High School in 1965, he then completed the Plumbers and Pipefitters Apprenticeship Program, becoming an accomplished and respected leader in his field. He has been an esteemed member of the Plumbers and Pipefitters Local Union 142 since 1970, earning a position of highest regard with sincere admiration from his fellow union members. Gary recently retired after serving in his trade for over forty five hard working and devoted years, most recently at Brandt Companies. However his passion and drive for his job had him yearning to get back to work once again. He is survived by three children; son, Clinton Shaner fiancé Trudie; daughters, Melissa Eastman husband Chad, Barbara Simpson husband Scott; his brother Ronnie Shaner wife Linda, his twin sister Jerri Shaner; his grandchildren Kathryn Lundquist, Scott Jr. Simpson, Samantha Simpson, Aidan Eastman, Bridgette Eastman, Jason Eastman, Tiffany Eastman and Riley Shaner; his great- grandchildren Barbara and Mikal McMillen. One of Gary's greatest joys in life was his deer hunting, the treasured time spent with his son Clint and best friend Billy Forehand at the deer lease. He enjoyed photography and cherished his time taking pictures of family and friends at gatherings. He especially looked forward to our annual family reunion which was a most special family event for him to spend time with his children, grandchildren and extended family every year.
