

Genevieve Sifuentes Flores

January 3, 1919 - September 4, 2008

Genevieve Sifuentes Flores, born January 3, 1919, entered eternal rest on September 4, 2008, after a long, happy and dedicated life. She is preceded in death by her husband, Pedro H. Flores; daughter, Lucille E. Carrizales; mother, Sapopa Sifuentes; father, Vicente Sifuentes, and brother, Juan Sifuentes. She is survived by her brother, Lalo Sifuentes; her daughter, Rita A. Villanueva; granddaughters, Lucille F. Stephens and Diana Carrizales, and grandsons, Albert Carrizales, Felix Villanueva, Jr., and Roger Villanueva. She is also survived by her beloved great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. Since 1970, Genevieve has been a pillar in the community. As the Vice President and leader of the Head Start program at Kenwood Community Center, she worked countless hours to enhance the lives of those in need. Genevieve enjoyed serving the community and less fortunate so much that she did not retire from service until the age of 82. She will be missed by all that were blessed to have known her.
