Tribute Wall

“ Genevieve was a valued member of our staff at CJF Ministries for several decades. Like Phyllis has already said here on the wall, Genevieve's retirement left a real void in our staff. Even today, long after her retirement, we still refer to her database of questions and answers to help us respond to the many inquiries we receive from our constituency of ministry friends and supporters. We know she is now in that Place she wrote about so often, so she is in good hands. But her departure leaves an emptiness in the hearts of her friends and loved ones, so our thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this time. May the Lord bless each and every one of you.

“ Your Mom was brilliant at answering Bible questions our supporters would send in. She was always kind and laid-back, pleasant to work with, and patient with us newbies to the ministry. Her retirement left a void here! Now she is really at Home - with Jim, and Jesus-probably soaking up more from Him. I'm so sorry for your loss! and praying for all of you as you carry on without her! - phyllis
