“ So sad. I went to Edison High School in San Antonio with Genevieve from 1958-1960, and when I saw her photo from the Edison 1960 graduation pictures, and I immediately remembered her. I read about her and am wishing and praying that her family remember her in the best light, and I am telling them she was a very nice and friendly girl at Edison High School. She was friendly to all, and was a good friend to many. Although it has been many years since she passed, she is still being missed !
