

Georgette Frances Caples

September 11, 1918 - March 30, 2014

Georgette Frances Caples, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, went to be with the Lord on March 30, 2014. She was born on September 11, 1918 to George and Eugenia Nichols, who have preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her beloved husband, Jeremiah Joseph Caples. They had been married for 52 years when he was called to heaven. Georgette leaves behind her twin sister Jean Sample of Houston; her son, Jerry Caples; son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Laurie Caples; daughter and son-in-law, Gette Beauvais and Gary Davis; daughter and son-in-law Jean and Wendell Karoly; grandsons, Richard and Timothy Beauvais; granddaughter and grandson-in-law, Jeannette and Chris Day; grandson and granddaughter-in-law, Kyle and Jenny Caples; and great-grandchildren, Alexis Michelle and Sean Charles Day. She also left behind many nieces and nephews that she held very dear.

Georgette was a devout Catholic and accepted Jesus as her Lord and Savior. She was a founding member of St. Gregory the Great Catholic Church and was active in church affairs until her health declined. She was a talented teacher who is fondly remembered by generations of children whom she taught at Arnold Elementary School in San Antonio. She and her husband, Jerry, were also avid square dancers.

The family would like to thank Diana Rodriguez and the staff at Superlative

Senior Care for their kind and generous care they showed to Georgette. The family would also like to thank Martha Nieske and Virginia and Kevin Gallagher who offered love and assistance to Georgette in her declining years.
