

George Arthur Beere

September 21, 1911 - July 5, 2005

BEERE

George Arthur Beere, age 93, passed away on July 5, 2005. George was born September 21, 1911 in San Antonio, Texas. George served in the United States Air Force for 10 years, serving 3 years in England during World War II. George was not afraid of a hard day's work and as a result was a very successful businessman, owning and operating many businesses, including Beere True Value Hardware stores, Rainbow Gardens Nursery's, and Balcones Creek Farms. George made many good friends and acquaintances throughout his lifetime. George was dedicated to protecting the environment and in April 2005 a greenhouse at the Selah-Bamberger Ranch Preserve was named and dedicated in his honor. He was preceded in death by his brothers, Edward, Herbert, and Harry Beere. He is survived by his brother, Webster Beere; sister-in-law, Margaret Beere; nieces, Shirley Price, Joan Marek, Rosemary Schmidt; nephews, Charles, Herbert, Joseph and James Beere. The family wishes to thank TJ and Joseph Anderson and his Hospice nurse, Susan Grigsby, for the loving care provided to him these last few months. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Selah-Bamberger Ranch Preserve, 2341 Blue Ridge Dr., Johnson City, Texas 78939.

“ Wish I would have spent the time to see what an interesting person he was, like his passion for helping save the environment and his poem & story writing. I'll miss my Uncle George but the family reunion in heaven must have been remarkable.
