

George Q. Castano

January 10, 1942 - January 22, 2021

George Q. Castano went to be with the Lord on January 22, 2021 at age 79. He was born on January 10, 1942 in San Antonio, Texas to parents Carlos and Velia Castano. George had an enthusiasm for life and enjoyed traveling, cars, and Motown music. Mr. Castano was a proud Veteran that served honorably in the United States Marine Corps. First & always he considered himself to be one of the few, the proud, the Marines. George later served and retired from the United States Air Force. George was a devoted husband and companion to his wife Rachel Castano. They enjoyed walking together, shopping, joking, traveling & restaurants. George is remembered for his leadership and devotion to family. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him, and will never be forgotten. George is preceded in death by his parents Carlos and Velia Castano. He is survived by his wife Rachel Castano, and son George H. Castano Jr.

Cemetery Details

Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery

1520 Harry Wurzbach
San Antonio, TX 78209

Previous Events

Final Visitation and Procession

MAR 2. 11:00 AM - 12:15 PM (CT)

Brookehill Funeral Home
711 SE Military Dr
San Antonio, TX 78214
(210) 923-7523
<https://www.missionparks.com/>

Graveside Service with Military Honors

MAR 2. 1:00 PM (CT)

Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery
1520 Harry Wurzbach
San Antonio, TX 78209

Tribute Wall

“ Mission Park Funeral Chapels & Cemeteries created a Tribute Video in memory of George Q. Castano

Mission Park Funeral Chapels & Cemetery - February 05, 2021 at 04:34 PM

GC

“ June 3, 2026. I looking forward to purchasing this framed photo in the coming days. This is a memory I will always share...as I enjoyed every moment of my life with my mom and dad. I miss you and love you mom and dad!

George Castano - June 03 at 05:23 PM

GC

“ May 8, 2026. Today is a very difficult day as I just lost my mom as she struggled with her diagnosis of cirrhosis. I will forever love her and miss just hearing her voice. I love you mom!

George Castano - May 09 at 01:58 AM

BR

I was so sad to hear about your mom. I know that she loved you very much and was very proud of you. I didn't know she was that sick. She loved to be outdoors pulling out weeds and had her yard looking very nice. I'll miss her calls to me and I'll miss calling her. Friend and neighbor, Becky Rothenbach

Becky Rothenbach - May 10 at 10:20 PM

GC

“ April 25, 2026. I know my dad personally did not like to eat pizza. But, he did take me to Pizza Hut on one of my birthdays year ago (Pizza Hut when is was legit). I wonder if I could him to try Prince St. Pizza in Vegas?? Hmm, I wish I could fly him out so he could try it. I love you, dad.

George Castano - April 26 at 02:28 PM

GC

“ March 29, 2026. I am wondering what my dad would have thought about these gas prices. I seriously doubt it if my dad would stay home more?? Nah, I know my dad. I love and miss you, dad.

George Castano - March 31 at 12:57 PM

GC

“ March 29, 2026. I can only imagine what my dad would be saying about these high gas prices. They had gone down quite a bit just a few months ago. I wonder if my dad would have stayed home more??? Nah, I doubt it! I miss and love you, dad.

George Castano - March 31 at 09:51 AM

GC

“ February 26, 2026. It's hard to believe that the Spurs are now title favorites, contenders. I surely wish my dad was here to see this. I'm hoping my mom can possibly enjoy at least one more championship banner in the near future. I love you and miss you, dad.

George Castano - March 08 at 05:23 AM

GC

“ January 31, 2026. I can remember the days when I would go to Lowe's to purchase these vibrant solar lights for the yard. I truly miss those days and always want my dad to know that I still love and appreciate him. George Jr.

George Castano - February 08 at 12:00 PM

GC

“ January 10, 2026. I just want to wish my dad a heavenly birthday wish as he would have been 84. I also wish you were here to see the next generation version of the San Antonio Spurs. I love and miss you always, George Jr.

George Castano - January 11 at 11:12 AM

GC

“ November 28, 2025. I can still remember walking around the Spurs Shop at “The Frost Bank Center” when I went with my dad to see the Spurs. I took my mom on Black Friday and we got some Fox shirts....I miss you dad, each and every day.

George Castano - December 11, 2025 at 02:07 AM

GC

“ October 30, 2025. Just makes my heart smile to see my mom enjoying enchiladas at Ruben’s on Commercial, on the Southside. I wish my dad was with us to enjoy some great Tex-Mex food. I miss you, dad.

George Castano - November 07, 2025 at 09:01 PM

GC

“ September 13, 2025. Just sharing a moment with my mom...I was waiting for my Uber to take me to the airport...I truly miss having my dad take me to the airport to fly back to Vegas!

George Castano - October 12, 2025 at 11:37 PM

GC

“ August 12, 2025. I miss the days when I would watch T.V. with my dad. I'm sure my dad would have enjoyed Spectrum cable services. I can't believe it will nearly be five years since my family has changed. I miss you and will always love you, dad.

George Castano - September 17, 2025 at 09:41 AM

GC

“ August 7, 2025. I can only imagine what my dad would have said if I wore this shirt on a visit to San Antonio, TX. I truly missed my dad when he would laugh at my poor excuse for what I call “jokes.” I miss you, dad.

George Castano - August 20, 2025 at 08:44 PM

GC

“ July 21, 2025. I miss the days when I would dine at the Brooke Army Medical Center DFAC with my parents. Just hanging out with my mom, enjoying some great breakfast. I miss and love you, dad. George Jr.

George Castano - July 24, 2025 at 09:07 PM

GC

“ June 16, 2025. I truly wish I could have bought this hat for my dad for Father's Day. But, I did pay my respects on this special day. As time passes by, I truly appreciate everything that my dad did for me. I will always miss you, dad. George Jr.

George Castano - June 21, 2025 at 12:00 PM

GC

“ May 24, 2025. It seems like only yesterday when my dad would be eagerly waiting my arrival to San Antonio. I will always cherish those moments. I wish my dad was here to pick me up, but the memories I have will always have a special place in my heart. I miss and love you, dad.

George Castano - May 24, 2025 at 07:02 AM

GC

“ April 18, 2025. I truly miss going to H.E.B. Plus on Military and Zarzamora. I just miss every moment that I spent with my dad. I love and miss you, George Jr.

George Castano - April 23, 2025 at 11:54 PM

GC

“ March 21, 2025. I can easily think back when I would go Wilford Hall Ambulatory Surgical Center with my dad. I truly wish he was still here with me. It has definitely been a difficult period since he passed away. But, just thinking back on sharing those great memories with my dad give me emotional strength and encouragement. I miss you, dad.

George Castano - March 21, 2025 at 03:50 PM

GC

“ February 16, 2025. I truly wish my dad was still here, as he would have been required to get the new military retiree identification card. I miss you and love you, dad.

George Castano - February 16, 2025 at 12:33 PM

GC

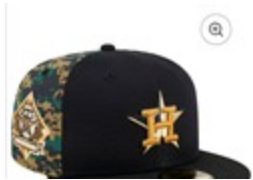

“ January 10, 2025. Sharing one of my dad's favorite photos...as he enjoys his favorite coffee from McDonald's. Happy birthday, dad...I love you! George Jr.

George Castano - January 10, 2025 at 09:51 PM

GC

“ October 11, 2024. I truly miss the days when I would purchase new hats for my dad. My dad never went anywhere without a nice hat to cover his head. I truly miss having you here in my life and cannot believe it has almost four years that you passed away. I love you, dad.

George Castano - October 09, 2024 at 09:39 PM

GC

“ August 19, 2024. I truly wish my dad was here to see the beginning of the new San Antonio Spurs season for 2024-2025. He would have been excited to see Wemby play, with the youth and some veterans. I love and miss you, dad!

George Castano - September 11, 2024 at 11:47 PM

GC

“ July 31, 2024. I am sharing a photo of some great pizza that I enjoyed on my birthday. This birthday was special as i remembered when my dad took me for pizza when I was a kid. My dad always made my birthday special, even after I left for the U.S. Air Force. My dad would always send me a birthday card. I truly miss my dad and the great memories I have of him often get me through challenging moments. I love you, dad.

George Castano - August 06, 2024 at 01:18 AM

GC

“ June 30, 2024. I am sharing a photo of my mom's Honda Accord from a few weeks ago. It only seems like yesterday that I was with my dad at the Walmart off of Poteet highway. I wish I could go back and share that moment with you. But, the memories I have of you mean everything to me. I love you, dad.

George Castano - July 13, 2024 at 12:35 AM

GC

“ May 23, 2024. I recently purchased some new pillows for my mom. On this Father’s Day, I can remember when my dad would always ask me if I needed a new pillow. This is how caring my dad was towards me. The simple things mattered to him most. I will always cherish what you did for me throughout my life. I love you and cherish you, dad.

George Castano - June 16, 2024 at 11:15 AM

GC

“ April 27, 2024. I truly wish I could pick up my dad, take him for a bite to eat at Willie’s Grill & Icehouse. My dad was always willing to go anywhere with me. I will always appreciate my dad and how he went above and beyond for me. I wish you were still here. I love and miss you, dad.

George Castano - May 17, 2024 at 07:07 PM

GC

“ March 22, 2024. Here is a photo of one of the many San Antonio Spurs shirts that my dad bought me. I truly appreciate as my dad would purchase Spurs championship merch as I was always away from home in June. I love you dad and will always appreciate all that you did for me.

George Castano - April 14, 2024 at 01:40 AM

GC

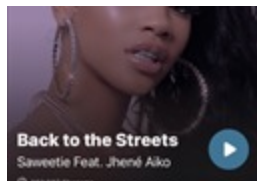

“ March 5, 2024. I truly miss the days when I would call my dad to let him know that the San Antonio Spurs won. I truly appreciate I when my dad would venture out to Academy Sports & Outdoors to purchase Spurs championship gear for me since I did not live in San Antonio. I will be always be thankful to you, dad. I love and miss you, always. George

George Castano - March 05, 2024 at 01:55 PM

GC

“ January 18, 2021. I can recall when my dad called me with fear in his voice to tell me that he had an infection in his lungs. I will never forget this phone call as I knew there was a real possibility that I could lose my dad. I was on my way to pick up my mom as she was getting her hair colored, at a beauty salon on Military Dr. This would be the second to last time I would ever speak to my dad, as he was intubated the next day. I wish I could have done more for my dad, but he would soon pass later that week. My heart is still broken to this day. I love you, dad.

George Castano - February 01, 2024 at 04:50 AM

GC

“ July 21, 2015. This is one of my favorite photos of my dad. We were just hanging out at Palo Alto College and looking up some information...my dad's birthday is coming up very soon and I will always cherish him. My dad was and still is amazing to me...I love you, dad.

George Castano - January 04, 2024 at 09:28 PM

GC

“ October 28, 2018. This is one of my favorite photos of my dad. He was about to leave after dropping me off at the airport. I miss seeing and spending my time with my dad. He's the best dad I could ever wish for...I love you, dad. (It will be 3 years next month that my dad passed).

George Castano - December 09, 2023 at 06:28 PM

GC

“ November 6, 2023. Just passing through downtown San Antonio, TX on my way back to Las Vegas. I truly wish that I was driving with my dad but I understand that life is short and meant to be embraced. I truly appreciate that my parents supported my military career. I visited my parents often and have no regrets as they both know I would always be there for them. I love you, dad.

George Castano - November 06, 2023 at 09:28 AM

GC

“ September 30, 2023. A new Starbucks is opening near the Walmart on Poteet highway. I can only imagine how my dad would react to these absurd gas prices. I still wish my dad was here today....I miss you so much, dad.

George Castano - October 06, 2023 at 01:35 AM

GC

“ November 20, 2018. Here is one of my favorite photos of my parents a day after my mom celebrated her birthday. I am so thankful to have such supportive parents. I love and miss my dad but I know he is smiling down from heaven when we shared these moments in life together.

George Castano - September 01, 2023 at 08:53 PM

GC

“ July 23, 2014. My dad and I enjoying a meal at the “Little Red Barn” in San Antonio, TX. This was an early birthday event for my actual birthday (July 31). I am so thankful for my mom and dad for giving me such a wonderful life. I will always cherish the memories we shared, dad. Love you, dad.

George Castano - July 31, 2023 at 11:44 AM

GC

“ July 19, 2015. I miss the days when I would venture with my dad to H-E-B Plus on Zarzamora and Military. My dad would always pick out some great fruit. I miss my dad more than words can express. Thank you dad for giving me such a wonderful life. I love you, dad.

George Castano - June 29, 2023 at 11:05 PM

GC

“ May 26, 2023. I'm sitting here at Whataburger enjoying some fries. I really wish my dad was here to share some fries with my mom and I but I know that he's in my heart, mind and soul. I love and miss you, always, dad. George

George Castano - June 03, 2023 at 02:06 PM

GC

“ April 15, 2023. I truly miss having my dad pick me up at San Antonio International Airport. Every time I fly home, I was so thankful that my dad was excited to see me. I will always cherish my dad as he will always be my best friend, my dad, my everything. I love you, dad.

George Castano - May 03, 2023 at 08:48 PM

GC

“ March 12, 2023. Here is one of the many ladders my dad bought over the years. I can remember when my dad would give me a periodic tours of the storage shed to show me what I recently purchased. I miss spending time with my dad in the backyard. I love you, dad. George

George Castano - March 23, 2023 at 10:32 PM

GC

“ February 20, 2023. A photo of the skyline of San Antonio, TX. I truly miss the days when my dad would drop me off at the airport. I knew that there would come a day when my dad would no longer be with us, physically. But, I was able to see my father at Ft. Sam Cemetery this President’s Day weekend. I always feel that my dad is with me. I love you, dad.

George Castano - February 26, 2023 at 12:31 PM

SH

I wish I would have known. I love you Father.

Stella Heredia-Rodriguez - March 02, 2023 at 11:56 PM

GC

“ November 20, 2018. Today marks two years since my dad passed away. It was difficult to see my father not able to breathe on his own and not able to respond to me as I told him how much I loved him. I just know he felt my presence and I am sure he felt the comfort of knowing his son was by his bed side as he passed away. I will always be there for you, dad, even though you are not physically here with us. I love you, dad.

George Castano - January 22, 2023 at 04:54 PM

GC

“ July 18, 2015. A day has passed since my dad’s birthday and I truly wish he was still with my mom and I. He would have been 81 years yesterday but his memories will always be in my heart. I will always appreciate you, dad. I miss and love you, dad.

George Castano - January 12, 2023 at 01:31 AM

GC

“ November 21, 2018. Tomorrow is my dad’s birthday and I truly wish I could take him to dinner to celebrate. I will still celebrate my dad’s special day in remembrance of how much I love and cherish him. Thank you for everything dad!

George Castano - January 09, 2023 at 03:12 AM

GC

“ December 15, 2017. Here is a photo of my parents during the holiday season in 2017. My parents and I were shopping at Ingram Park Mall. My dad bought me a new jacket at Hollister which I truly appreciate to this day. I am a very lucky son to have had such great parents. I love and miss you, dad.

George Castano - December 08, 2022 at 09:24 AM

GC

“ November 20, 2018. Here's is a photo of my dad representing the pride of the United States Air Force. I wish you were here to celebrate Veterans Day. But, you will always be in my heart. I love you and miss you dad. Happy Veterans Day!

George Castano - November 11, 2022 at 10:50 AM

GC

“ July 23, 2014. Here's a photo of my dad using one of his many cameras to capture a moment right before my birthday. We met family at the Little Red Barn in San Antonio. I had a really good time and it seems like only yesterday that I was spending time my with my dad. I think about you every day day dad. I love you, dad.

George Castano - October 12, 2022 at 02:37 AM

GC

“ September 11, 2022. This is the new Nissan dealership by Walmart on Poteet highway. I truly wish that my dad had more time to enjoy his 2018 Nissan Maxima. I remember shopping for his beloved Maxima during my visits to San Antonio in 2018. I will always cherish each memory I have with my dad who was always there for me. I miss and love you dad. Thank you for all you did for me...I will always remember you. George Jr.

George Castano - September 14, 2022 at 12:04 AM

GC

“ November 18, 2015. This is a great photo of my dad as he stands by the exhibit photos of the Spurs most recent championships. I am so grateful that I took so many photos and shared memories such as visit to a Spurs game with my mom. I miss you every day, dad.

George Castano - August 08, 2022 at 03:05 AM

GC

“ February 19, 2018. Here is a photo of my dad just as he drops me off so I can fly back to Las Vegas, NV. I can't believe it has been a year and a half since my dad has passed away. I think of my dad every day and always remind myself how lucky I am. I am lucky that my father was always there for me and loved me for who I am. I love you, dad.

George Castano - July 07, 2022 at 03:43 PM

FF

Our deepest condolences. He was the best of us.... faithful, loving, loyal and fierce patriot. His memory will always live on. Our love and prayers go to you and your family.

Frankie Lizcano and family - July 17, 2022 at 11:14 PM

GC

“ November 22, 2018. Here is a photo of my dad just before he drops me off at the airport so I can fly back to Las Vegas. I truly miss my dad and having the opportunity to visit him in San Antonio, TX. I have no regrets as I visited my dad often and created frequent memories that will last a lifetime. I love and miss you, dad.

George Castano - June 09, 2022 at 01:43 PM

GC

“ May 7, 2022. I'm just sharing a memory of Lids at South Park Mall in San Antonio, TX where my dad and I would go “cap” shopping. My dad would think that the caps were a bit pricey but he lived life to the fullest and shopped there anyways. My dad bought a few caps from time to time at Lids and would bend them before he wore them. I thought my dad was funny for doing this but he loved his caps. I love and miss you dad!

George Castano - May 13, 2022 at 12:29 AM

GC

“ April 17, 2022. I just washed my dad’s prized possession...his 2018 Nissan Maxima. I truly wished that my dad was able to enjoy his car more before he passed. My mom and I visited him today at Ft. Sam Cemetery and I did tell him that I would wash his car today...I kept that promise. I love you, dad. George Jr.

George Castano - April 18, 2022 at 12:52 AM

GC

“ November 7, 2014. This is a photo of my dad at the Lackland A.F.B. Exchange as he is showing me one of the lawnmowers he wanted to buy. I truly appreciate how my father took his time to show me what he knew before he passed away. It’s been just over a year that we buried my father. I miss my dad more than anything but know he is watching over me and my mother from heaven. I love you, dad.

George Castano - March 15, 2022 at 12:46 AM

GC

“ December 30, 2018. A photo of my dad as we arrive to drop me off to fly back to Las Vegas. I am so proud of my dad as he shows his pride for the Marines. I truly miss having my dad pick me and drop me off at the San Antonio International Airport. It has been just over a year that we held my dad's rosary service. I love you dad and always think about you each and every day. George Jr.

George Castano - February 18, 2022 at 01:55 AM

GC

“ May 5, 2019. This photo was taken at Whataburger by my parents house. I can't believe that it has been a year that my dad passed away. I always think of my dad each and every day. I will always miss my dad and talk to him every day. I am so thankful that my dad prepared me to help me take care of my mom. I love you dad and wish you could have survived the pneumonia you were so sick from. I cherish the love you showed me and I hope you felt the love I will always have for you as your son. Until we meet again dad...I will stay strong and know that you are by my side.

George Castano - January 22, 2022 at 03:43 AM

GC

“ September 1, 2016. Today is the first birthday I have had to celebrate without my dad being physically here. I have spoken to my dad two times (in privacy) over the course of today to wish him a "Happy Birthday." I knew this day would come but I cherish the years and always sent him a birthday card for him to read and remind him of how much I love him. I really wish you were here, dad. But, i know that you are always here with me and mom in spirit. I always think of how much you showed me that you always loved me and cared for me. I have attached one of my favorite photos of my dad as he looked at me and smiled....a moment I will always cherish. Happy Birthday, dad!

George Castano - January 10, 2022 at 08:37 PM

GC

“ October 23, 2020. This family photo was taken before the holiday season. It is so invigorating. I am so glad my parents agreed to take the photo as it would be the last photo of my mom and dad and I together. I have no regrets as I shared many moments with them... memories that will always make me feel blessed to have such amazing parents.

George Castano - December 20, 2021 at 10:35 PM

GC

“ November 18, 2015. This photo was just 6 years ago and right before Thanksgiving in 2015. This will be my first Thanksgiving without my father, physically, but my memories of our our time together as father and son will be cherished and never forgotten. Happy Thanksgiving 2021, dad! Love you!

George Castano - November 24, 2021 at 09:18 PM

GC

“ October 27, 2017. My dad as he prepares for a medical procedure at Brooke Army Medical Center. I always tried to help my parents by being there for my dad as I knew he would need to be sedated and unable to drive home. I wish I could still fly home to San Antonio to help my dad again for medical procedures when he needed them. I know he is watching over me from heaven. I love you, dad!

George Castano - November 04, 2021 at 02:40 AM

GC

“ October 27, 2019. My dad really enjoyed the Vegas Golden Knights caps I would send him. Today, the Golden Knights won the season opener of the season over the Seattle Kraken, 4-3. Every time I see a person wearing a Golden Knights cap, it reminds me of the times I would see my dad enjoying his newest cap. I miss you dad but thank you for always being there for me...you are truly loved by your family. George Jr.

George Castano - October 13, 2021 at 02:52 AM

GC

“ June 18, 2020. It has now been 8 months since my dad passed away. This is a photo from a short trip I took to see my parents in San Antonio not too long after the pandemic began. I am very thankful I saw my dad last June. I wish I could go visit him but I am slowly accepting the fact that he is not here physically. But, I visit him at his burial site and talk to him every day and tell my dad I love him. This gives me the strength to be there for my mom. I will always be thankful for the wonderful life my dad gave me. I love you dad!

George Castano - September 23, 2021 at 12:01 AM

GC

“ February 19, 2018. Here is a photo of my dad enjoying a baked potato from Wendy's at North Star Mall. We would often eat at Northstar Mall just before I would fly back to Las Vegas. I was very close to military retirement but I did promise that I will do my best to take care of my mom when he passed on. I may not be in San Antonio, TX physically but I have always been there for her. I hope you can see that, dad. I told you I would not let you down, dad. I miss you!

George Castano - August 12, 2021 at 02:15 AM

GC

“ September 9, 2019. A photo of my dad enjoying a quick meal after we went to a doctor's appointment at Brooke Army Medical Center. I especially cherish this photo because I know the ICU 3T staff did everything they could to help my father recover from COVID-19 complications. It has been 6 months since my father passed but I speak of him highly, share his stories with those who have known him and those who have never met him. I miss you dad but always know that mom and I will always love you. George Jr.

George Castano - July 22, 2021 at 11:13 AM

GC

“ January 20, 2019. I truly miss watching my dad enjoy his "fair" share of Luby's food. This is just one of many great memories I cherish of my dad. My mom and I talk about how much my dad enjoyed the food at Luby's on the south side of San Antonio. Although it has been very difficult, my mom and I talk of my father and how we have so many great memories of him. I always feel that my dad is s with me. We love you dad and always will. George Jr.

George Castano - July 13, 2021 at 03:06 AM

GC

“ June 18, 2020. This photo was taken three days before Father's Day in 2020. I knew the day would come when my dad would no longer be there physically. This is the first Father's Day without my dad and it is difficult. But, my father gave me the strength to take on this difficult first Father's Day without him. I wish I could call him to say "Happy Father's Day" but I still told him as I know he is watching over me. I love you dad.

George Castano - June 21, 2021 at 12:26 AM

GC

“ May 28, 2021. My mom and I went to pay respects to my late father at Ft. Sam Houston Cemetery, San Antonio, TX. I truly miss my father but have so many great memories of our time together as a family. I cherish these memories more than ever before. I now feel I that I have the closure I needed and feel an overwhelming sense of pride that he was laid to rest in honor. I love you, dad.

George Castano - May 31, 2021 at 02:03 PM

GC

“ October 24, 2020. This was the last family photo we ever took together. I'm so glad I convinced my mom and dad to take photos, despite the precautions with COVID-19. I will forever cherish this photo. I have no regrets as I visited my parents often to create memories that will last a lifetime. It has been 4 months since my father passed away but I feel that he is always with me. I will always be thankful for all of my memories with my parents. I love you dad.

George Castano - May 22, 2021 at 10:39 PM

GC

“ April 19, 2019. My dad and I are just enjoying a cup of coffee at McDonald's on W. Military Drive by JBSA Lackland AFB. We would drop my mom off at SWRI and swing by there. I will always cherish these memories as I knew my dad was well into his late 70's. I was hoping my dad would reach the age of 80 but he was pretty dam close...he was 79 when he passed. As I have said, I have quite a few videos of our times at McDonald's. I am so glad I took so many videos. When I miss my dad, I just watch a few minutes of a video and I feel that he is with me and never left. I love you, dad.

George Castano - May 18, 2021 at 01:33 AM

GC

“ September 2, 2018. My dad enjoying salad and breadsticks at the Olive Garden near Brooks-City Base which was the newest location on the Southside. My dad was not a huge fan of Olive Garden but he went because my mom and I enjoyed the food there. My dad always put my mom and I first...he was selfless and a father I will always respect and love. I miss you each day but smile knowing you prepared me for this time in my life. The time I would have to think back on the great times we shared. I love you dad.

George Castano - May 11, 2021 at 02:57 AM

GC

“ November 17, 2016. My dad enjoying a Wendy's hamburger at North Star Mall. We would often hang out the mall since it is close to the airport and get a "bite" to eat before I flew back to Vegas. I surely miss these days but continue to cherish the love I have always had for both of my parents. My dad was always there for me....his dedication to me is something I never took for granted. I visited my parents often to prevent myself from having regrets of not spending enough time with them. Now, I have to be there for my mom....I have tried my best to help her deal with the legal matters, etc. I told my dad I would be there for my mom when he passed away. I have kept to my promise and always will. You truly prepared me for this moment of loss and I am staying focused, just the way you asked me to be. I love you, dad!

George Castano - May 03, 2021 at 12:25 AM

GC

“ February 18, 2019. My dad is dropping me off at the San Antonio International Airport. He is wearing one of the many caps I would purchase online for him. I truly miss surprising him with nice caps. But, this memory brings me joy and happiness as I know he really appreciated the gesture of receiving caps from his son. It has been three months since my dad has passed and I will always cherish him and his legacy.

George Castano - April 26, 2021 at 04:18 AM

DA

“ Our deepest condolences to the Castano Family, we just learned of George's passing yesterday. We have been friends since George Jr was a toddler, and although we wouldn't see each other very often we held him and Rachel in high esteem. Thank you for your friendship and may he Rest In Peace. Continued prayers of comfort for the family. Juan and Dora Aleman

Dora Aleman - April 17, 2021 at 01:33 PM

GC

Ms. Aleman, the Castano family truly appreciates your condolences and support during this difficult time. Rachel and George Jr.

George Castano - April 21, 2021 at 09:55 AM

GC

“ March 7, 2020. It has just over a year ago that I was spending time with my parents at JBSA Lackland at one of the mini malls on the basic trainees side. We were just hanging out at Starbucks and enjoying a good coffee. It has been almost three months since my father passed away but I still miss my dad very, very much. But, I cherish these memories and appreciate that my dad allowed me to capture these moments in time. I traveled often to see my parents and have so many great memories of my parents. Love you dad!

George Castano - April 16, 2021 at 01:59 AM

GC

“ October 25, 2020. My dad in his last photo in which he drove me to the airport before I flew back to Las Vegas. This is the last time I ever saw my father healthy, in good spirits and driving. I especially cherish this memory since I knew that the day would come that my dad would not be there for me (physically) to visit in San Antonio. My dad did all he could to get better when he started feeling ill in January 2021. I know (in my heart) that I will see my dad in a different life and look forward to telling him how much I love him. For now, I carry his spirit and think back on the memories I have of our time together. I am thankful I took several videos of many moments in time that we shared together when I begin to feel down or just miss you. I love you dad and always will.

George Castano - April 09, 2021 at 10:37 PM

GC

“ February 9, 2017. My dad trying on a new pair shoes at the San Antonio Shoe Co. on the south side of San Antonio. He really enjoyed the comfort of those shoes as he is showing us a new style. Thank you dad for always taking a photo to “capture the moment” and give me great memories that will last a lifetime.

George Castano - April 06, 2021 at 09:59 AM

GC

“ June 6, 2017. My dad is voting at South Park Mall. He was my (and still is) my mentor, my motivator, my best friend. My dad also said it's important to vote. I truly wish he was still here physically but he's still there in my heart.

George Castano - March 26, 2021 at 04:07 AM

GC

“ February 10, 2017. My dad is buying some tamales from “Delicious Tamales” off of Marbach Rd. in San Antonio, TX. Thank you dad for the great tamales! I will always appreciate everything you did for my mom and I.

George Castano - March 23, 2021 at 10:42 PM

GC

“ July 18, 2015. My dad is using the Wifi at the McDonalds across from Harlandale High School to search for jobs. My dad was a hard-working man who always wanted to stay employed and active. I will always cherish these moments as we just sat down while we both of drank a few cups of my dad's favorite coffee. My dad will always be a great man who made time for me each time I visited.

George Castano - March 17, 2021 at 02:21 PM

GC

“ July 23, 2014. My dad and I are just enjoying some good food at Little Red Barn right before my birthday in 2014. I am so thankful that my dad was there to see me retire from from the U.S. Air Force. I will always respect him and be thankful as my dad was always there for me. I always tried to come home as often as I could to show my appreciation to my parents. Love you dad!

George Castano - March 08, 2021 at 09:27 PM

GC

“ March 2, 2021. My father was laid to rest at Ft. Sam Houston with honor, integrity and with his family by his side (with complete military honors for his honorable and faithful service to the U. S. Marines and U. S. Air Force). This is difficult to post but my dad deserves nothing but the the best as he loved and cared for his family. My dad put his family first before himself. I will always honor him and share his legacy with everyone I meet. I love you dad, from Rachel (mom) and George Jr. (son).

George Castano - March 04, 2021 at 01:35 PM

GC

“ January 25, 2016. Dad just talking to one of the employees from Soluna Mexican Restaurant on 7959 Broadway. We arrived early so we had to wait but the food was worth the wait and free, free, free! We went again the following since my dad enjoyed the food; dad could be "picky" about food at times. We enjoyed a great meal ($50 gift card) as a family and I will definitely cherish this memory for the rest of my life.

George Castano - March 01, 2021 at 01:14 PM

GC

“ November 18, 2015. My dad and mom just waiting for the Spurs to take on the Nuggets at the AT&T Center. The Spurs won 109-98 and this was LaMarcus Aldridge's first year as a Spur. I will always cherish these game moments.

George Castano - February 25, 2021 at 01:38 AM

GC

“ November 5, 2014. Dad and Mom taking a “pose” by one of the many San Antonio Spurs Championship photos at the AT&T Center before a game.

George Castano - February 23, 2021 at 10:28 PM

GC

“ July 3, 2017. My dad showing me an "overpriced" shirt at the San Antonio Shoe Company. My dad was always cool with me capturing him in photos at the spur of the moment. I will always cherish these memories.

George Castano - February 22, 2021 at 11:48 AM

GC

“ December 8, 2014. My dad sitting with my mom at San Antonio International Airport before I fly back to Las Vegas, NV. My parents were always there for me and supported my military career.

George Castano - February 21, 2021 at 09:43 PM

AF

“ Sending prayers to family in this time of sorrow. Annette Figueroa-Schreiber (Tom & Christie Figueroa daughter)

Annette Figueroa-Schreiber - February 21, 2021 at 05:24 PM

GC

Thank you for the words of support. The funeral service is March 2 at Brookehill Funeral Home at 11:00 a.m. The funeral service will be held at 12:45 p.m. at Ft. Sam Houston Cemetery (we will depart at 12:15 p.m. from Brookehill)

George Castano - February 21, 2021 at 09:56 PM

GC

“ July 22, 2015. Dad just hanging out with me at San Antonio International Airport before I fly back to Nellis AFB. I really miss these moments but I will always cherish them.

George Castano - February 19, 2021 at 12:41 AM

GC

“ November 15, 2016. My dad at Judy's on Rosevelt Ave & 410. He wanted me to try the food. Thank you dad!

George Castano - February 19, 2021 at 12:13 AM

GC

November 15, 2016. My dad at Judy's on Rosevelt Ave & 410. He wanted me to try the food. Thank you dad!

George Castano - February 19, 2021 at 12:21 AM

GC

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

George Castano - February 16, 2021 at 06:40 PM

GC

September 1, 2016. Dad trying on shoes at the San Antonio Shoe Company

George Castano - February 19, 2021 at 12:16 AM

GC

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

George Castano - February 14, 2021 at 02:25 AM

GC

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

George Castano - February 13, 2021 at 01:43 AM

TC

“ Thomas Carroll sent a virtual gift in memory of George Q. Castano

Thomas Carroll - February 10, 2021 at 11:11 PM

TC

I will miss my dear friend George! He was a very good man that had a heart of gold!

Thomas Carroll - February 11, 2021 at 02:12 AM

GC

Thomas Carroll, thank you for the kind words and the support. My dad will always be a great man.

George Castano - February 13, 2021 at 01:00 AM

VD

RIP Mr. G Castano, my name is Valentine Dunne, I served with your Son George at Altus AFB OK. Your Son was a great guy and he always talked about you.

My father passed away on Jan 14th 2022 and George I know how much you must miss your father.

all the best Valentine Dunne your old Air Force buddy.

Valentinedunne@highfashiongarments.com Tel (17 250 1992

Valentine Dunne - January 26, 2023 at 11:02 AM