

George H. Lee, II PhD

February 26, 1939 - December 18, 2021

George H. Lee II passed away peacefully on December 18, 2021, at his residence in San Antonio, Texas. He was born on February 26, 1939, in Ithaca, New York to the late George H. Lee and Dora Raymo Lee. George is survived by his loving wife of 57 years, June Brown Lee; sons, David (Claudine) and Daniel (Stephanie) Lee and grandchildren, Nicholas, Kayla, Aaron, and Zachary Lee.

George received his Ph.D. in Chemistry from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, New York and Post-Doctoral Education at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York. His research career continued in San Antonio with Southwest Research Institute and Brooks A.F.B. He was involved in the Boy Scouts of America, had interests in Genealogy and Astronomy, enjoyed playing softball, tennis, and golf. Travelling both cross country and abroad were also special times for his wife and family and friends.

George is remembered as a loving Husband, Father and Grandfather.

The family recognizes and deeply appreciates the long-term care provided by Desiree Fuentes, Alma Elizulde, and Amalia Fuentes.

“ We are so sorry to read about your loss of George in today’s paper. He was such a fine, intelligent man. We have fond memories of George as we participated in events together as our children grew up with David and Daniel.
We send our deepest sympathy to all the family at this difficult time,
Nancy and Barry (Portnoy)

“ We were indeed fortunate to have shared special times with June and George ... especially at the Brown Reunions. Oh how George loved taking photos of the entire family. George so enjoyed tromping around the cemeteries with my Mom seeking information for the Brown / Teal Geneology Records. We sure enjoyed our visit to your home with Jim and Joanne approx. 10 years ago. June and Family - may you find peace knowing George has now been made well and has undoubtedly resumed some of the special things he enjoyed doing. Know we care deeply and send our love! Jean and Don
