

George F. Moul Sr.

June 27, 1939 - January 10, 2026

George “Moe” Moul was a charmer and a character who lived life by his own rules. He was more of a cautionary tale than a good example, but he sure was fun at a party. And, wherever he was; it became a party.

In his youth, George, was an avid sportsman winning many trophies and competitions drag racing motorcycles. He was an ardent saltwater fisherman who loved taking his boat out into the Gulf to fish for sharks. He participated in scuba diving when the sport was in its infancy.

George loved traveling and exploring new places. On San Antonio’s coldest days, he loved nothing more than flying down to Mexico to snorkel with the sleeping sharks in Cancun or exploring the ruins in Tulum. He and his late wife Sue also enjoyed traveling in their RV especially trips to the coast. One of his most memorable RV trips was taking Grandma Moul back to West Virginia to visit family and the old homestead.

At age 12, George worked hard to earn enough money to buy his first motorcycle, an old Indian. Many more bikes were to follow as he made special memories riding with his sons and grandsons. George enjoyed many riding adventures with countless friends especially during his many trips to Bikeweek in Daytona, Florida and Sturgis, South Dakota.

He learned to work hard on the farm, and as a young man worked the derricks in New Orleans and the oil fields in Midland-Odessa. George was a small business owner of Frontier Town and as a licensed electrician later became "Moe" the Fan Man.

George was preceded in death by his parents, Ray Webster Moul and Ruby Ellen Moul, wife Margaret Sue Moul, brothers: Ray and Bob Moul and Sister: Barbara Cropper.

He is survived by his sons: George F. Moul Jr (Jackie), Troy Adam Moul (Wanda); stepson: Rodney Christa; Grandchildren: Jonathan (Kiersten) Moul, Steven Moul, Adam Moul (Nicole), Christopher Moul, Jason Moul, Allen Christa (Alice), Sierra Oberhauser (Tyler), Savannah Christa, and beloved great grandchildren, brother: Joy Moul; sister-in-law: Patty Cornelison, and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ Roar of motorcycles, ring ding ring of his garage protection bell, site of more fans in the world.As a long time neighbor, I enjoyed sharing stories of our adventures and trips, most of them true. Me and the neighbors will miss seeing and chatting with him on his walks around the neighborhood. RIP
