“ I was his first grand kid and those were great times! He was a creator, an innovator, a Veteran, a successful General Contractor in Texas, a business man, a true debonaire trailblazer, but more importantly, he was the Grandfather who woke me up for ice cream in the middle of the night, who crafted some pretty cool toys, who loved to go fishing, and so many more things. I'll never forget the faint, sweet smell of his King William cigar early in the mornings. Rest easy, Grandpa....your time here was not wasted...
