“ To the most tolerant man in the world, I love and will miss you dearly. We have quite a few adventures, some not so fun but a lot of love and excitement in our marriage of 50 years. Believe me when I say no other person would put up with my nutty ness but you and I will always have found the love and joy looking back we enjoyed together. Our journey was cut to short but we will meet up again and have another go around, so till my journey ends here and we meet again all my love to the smartest, most gracious human being I have ever had the privilege to know and love, my hubby always, your girl.

“ My sincerest condolences to Phyllis and family. I was so saddened to learn of George's passing.

I lived next door to George and Phyllis for E years in San Antonio and have such great memories of the neighborhood pot luck dinners, the puppies, the holiday gatherings and just so many shared experiences.

George saved me a couple of times with his wet shop-vac when my washing machine line broke and I had water all over laundry room and kitchen. He was always right there when I needed help.

I will always remember his kind smile.

“ I was so saddened to learn of George's passing. I thought he would outlive us all! Always such a strong mans, man. Always up to some project or helping others. He is surely reaping his reward in Heaven. The boys really looked up to him and we will miss him dearly! I have always called the gate he designed and built by our house "George's Gate".....Actually "King" George's Gate. I spoke to the HOA board and we are putting a plaque to officially name it. He is and was a great man and friend.

“ George,
*From the first day I met you walking with Phyllis by your side, I knew we would be friends.
I fell in to your arms that first New Years so long ago- so happy I was to have found you.
We stayed late into the morning talking about everything, laughing, solving the world's problems.
You were a household name- "Ask George" we always said.
You were kind to my son, you were a friend and a brother to me.
I am honored to have been a part of you life.
Know that I will be full of care and love for your Phyllis and that I will never ever forget your goodness to me.
Until I hug you in heaven,*

Love,

Gina

“ Sending heartfelt condolences to Phyllis and the entire family. Will always treasure the wonderful memories of the happy times; pizza nights at my house, cookouts at Phyllis and George's house in Connecticut. George always had a smile and a joke or two.

“ A few short years ago 1971, we became best friends in Bridgeport, CT. We met you and Phyllis at your store The Whistle Stop. I was interested in model kits, AMT, fire trucks, which had just been issued. Our visit turned out to be a long 50+ year adventure. All of us spent many weekends visiting each and mostly spent weekends with a nice dinner and time to work on building our kits.

I learned so much from you about detail and finishes on the models. We exchanged many ideas and we spent time on short road trips to photograph construction and fire equipment. The parades and musters we attended together along with truck shows will always be a part of our history.

Then there were times that really became memorable, the births of our children, grand children, and great grandchildren. We each had so many great times together watching them grow to be wonderful adults with successful futures.

George we also had very funny experiences like the time you helped me do a concrete sidewalk. We had help from some young friends. Well pouring concrete from a wheel barrow. Remember the "Not My Day" kid.... He kept spilling the concrete all over the place. Another day we went to a demolition site we were taking photos of construction equipment from outside a gated area. Out of nowhere a security guard approached. Asked what we were doing, he then informed us of the security of the site. He then opened the gate and invited us in. Well we thought that was good. Then we got to the other side of the property and he got out of his vehicle and told us "You guys cannot just drive onto the site. Next time get permission." We looked at each other and said to the security guard, "You opened the gate", We laughed all the way back home.

We can't forget the cookout at your house in Hamden, CT. We are in the kitchen and from outside we hear this loud whoosh sound. We looked outside and you said " Phyllis just lit the grill with her secret ingredients gasoline, Good thing your a fire fighter."

George you have been my Best Friend for over 50 years. You have served in the military with honor, and you always said what was on your mind with direction and compassion for others. You are a man of great admiration to all of us.

*God Bless You Always,
Your friend Lou.*
