“ Few people in the world have the gift to better the lives of their loved ones and create lasting, jubilant memories like George Tays. George did not just make me laugh and enjoy his company; he also gave me encouragement and perspective. His work ethic and drive were praiseworthy. Ever the gifted engineer, George laid the blueprint on how to find success in the office and at home. His laughter, his singing, his hilarious jokes, and his words of wisdom are cemented in my memory. The generosity he showed to countless others was a testament to the strong character that was the foundation of the beautiful life he built. Choche will continue to live on through our recollections and our stories because he was the definition of remarkable man.
