

Georgette Dufresne Spoonts

December 8, 1918 - March 26, 2008

Georgette Dufresne Spoonts, 89, of San Antonio, died on Wednesday, March 26th, after a long illness. Mrs. Spoonts was born in Wallace, Louisiana, December 8, 1918 to Ulysse and Ida Marie Dufresne. She received an R.N. degree at Hotel Dieu School of Nursing and worked as a public health nurse until 1943 when she enlisted in the Army Nurse Corps. She served as a 1st Lt. 7th Field Hospital, in the Central Europe and Rhineland Campaigns. After the war, Mrs. Spoonts lived a life of services devoted to her family, church, and community. Mrs. Spoonts was predeceased by her mother and father, four sisters, one brother, and husband of 54 years, Lt. Col. Leslie Spoonts, Jr., USAF, Ret. She is survived by one sister, Ethel Dufresne of Laplace and one brother, Ulysse J. Dufresne, of Ponchatoula, Louisiana. She is survived by a son, Leslie Spoonts, III, a daughter, Elizabeth "Betsy" Horn, both of Fort Worth, three grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

RT

“ The fond memories of Les and Georgette are etched in my mind. Please accept this belated condolence from one of their many friends.
Richard Taverna, DDS
San Antonio

Richard Taverna - January 19, 2019 at 06:37 PM

BV

“ Les and Betsy: My deepest sympathy on the loss of your mother. She was a vivacious, beautiful aunt during her life. I have wonderful memories of her. Sorry we could not be with you for her funeral. She is in my prayers.....Betsy

Betsy Vial - March 31, 2008 at 12:00 AM

BM

“ Dear Betsy and Les, Jr. - My deepest sympathy on the loss of your mother. I have very fond memories of her throughout my lifetime. She will be remembered in my prayers. Love, Babs

Babs Mollere - March 30, 2008 at 12:00 AM

BM

“ Georgette Dufresne Spoons

Babs Mollere - March 30, 2008 at 12:00 AM