

Georgia Asher Bryson

November 18, 1929 - October 30, 2020

Georgia was born on November 18, 1929 to Lloyd Phillip Asher and Ava Marie Asher in Harlingen, Texas. Georgia spent her childhood in Harlingen, and later in San Antonio where she graduated from Brackenridge High School. She married Robert Henderson Bryson in 1951.

Georgia trained as a medical lab technician after high school. She had a long career in the hematology department at Methodist Hospital. Georgia retired from her position there to devote herself to caring full-time for her son Jeff during his battle with cancer. After his passing, she continued to serve cancer patients in a San Antonio oncology clinic.

Georgia was active in worship, Sunday school, and hand chime ringing at University Methodist Church. She also volunteered weekly for Threads of Love where she sewed clothing to be donated to premature babies in San Antonio hospitals.

Georgia relocated to Allen, Texas in 2018 to be nearer to family members. She passed away there on October 30, 2020.

Georgia was preceded in death by her son Jeffrey in 1992, and great-grandson Adam in 2016.
