“ Everyone should be blessed to have a friend like Georgia. One you can say anything to and hear anything from and still be as close a friend as ever. I was blessed from the time I met her 60 years ago until now. We could disagree, make fun of each other - anything. It didn't change our relationship. I wish I still had the letter she wrote me from Baton Rouge when I wrote her that I was getting married. She had a list of reasons I shouldn't marry a divorced man with children. She did it out of love. So when I did marry him and when they moved back here, she and Bill became great friends who picked on each other as much as she and I did. Love you and miss you, Georgia ❤️

“ I remember Georgia's kindness and her gentle smile. She will be missed by many.

I'm saddened about her passing, and I pray for the family during this tough time. At the same time, I'm so glad our wonderful Lord and God allowed her to be here with us for 83 years filled with memories. May these memories hold fast in the hearts of all who loved her. May God bless each and every one of you.
