

Georgiann L. (Zander) McMillin

November 24, 1948 - August 22, 2024

Georgiann L. Zander (née McMillin), aged 75, passed away on August 22, 2024, in San Antonio, Texas. Born on November 24, 1948, Georgiann was known for her vibrant and loving personality, characterized by her wit, humor, and caring nature. She was truly the life of the party, always ensuring that those around her felt cherished and celebrated. Georgiann leaves behind a legacy of love and laughter, survived by her devoted husband of 51 years, William O. Zander, Jr., and their daughters, Wendi, Brandi, and Jennifer. She was a proud grandmother to four grandsons, Bradley, Shane, Austin, and Brandon, and a great-grandmother to Jack and Hazel.

A woman of remarkable strength and dedication, Georgiann had a passion for thrifting, often found shopping at Goodwill and finding joy in the simple pleasure of a great find. She cherished her time at the beach in Port Aransas, where she could relax and enjoy the beauty of nature. Her love for decorating during the holidays made each season special, creating lasting memories for her family. A celebration of life for Georgiann will be held at a later date, with details to be announced by the family. Her spirit and enthusiasm will be deeply missed, but her influence will continue to resonate with all who knew her.

Tribute Wall

BR

“ Just sitting here thinking about you, Mom. There's not a minute that goes by that you aren't missed. I love and miss you tremendously. ”

Brandi - November 13, 2024 at 08:00 PM