“ I've never met Mrs. Parker, but you only have to look at her family to know, that she must have been an amazing woman. May you all find comfort in your love for each other and in the many happy memories you've shared together.

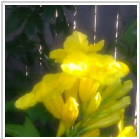

My deepest sympathy!

The light that shines within us never really fades, it goes on burning bright through the people we loved and left behind, until we are reunited with them in God's kingdom.

It was my great honor to have been asked to make your last birthday cake. It was made with love and I will forever cherish that memory. Thank you! May perpetual light shine upon you!
