

Gerald Anthony Halbardier

April 28, 1939 - August 21, 2023

Gerald Anthony Halbardier, the world's best truck driver, husband, father, and skilled handyman, passed away peacefully on August 21, 2023, at the age of 84. He was born on April 28, 1939, and his indomitable spirit and legacy will forever be remembered by those who had the privilege of knowing him.

Gerald, a man of humble beginnings who completed his high school education, had a passion for the open road and an unyielding work ethic. He traversed millions of miles, forging connections with people and places along the way.

He shared his life with his beloved wife, Robbie Rose Halbardier, who stood by his side through every adventure and challenge. Gerald's legacy continues through his two sons, Theo Halbardier and Jay Halbardier, both of whom inherited his strong character and unrelenting determination.

Gerald's talents extended beyond his professional and family life. He had a gift for handiwork and was known for his knack for fixing things around the house. Whether it was a leaky faucet, broken appliance, or a wavering A/C, he approached every task with a can-do attitude and a commitment to perfection.

Gerald was predeceased by his mother, Marcella Conrad, his father, Theo

Halbardier, his brother, Daniel Halbardier, and his sister, Carol Ann Hubertus. His loving wife, Robbie Rose Halbardier, and his sons, Theo and Jay Halbardier, will continue to carry forward his legacy of hard work, dedication, and love. He is also survived by his sisters Maggie Neff, Terri Modgling, and Rose Mary Bramble; his existing grandchildren Corinne Dehoyos, Dylan Halbardier, Corbin Halbardier; and his existing great grandchild Emmory Dehoyos.

Gerald Anthony Halbardier's impact on the lives he touched is immeasurable, and his memory will forever remain etched in the hearts of family, friends, and those who had the privilege of sharing in his journey.

Rest in peace, Gerald Anthony Halbardier.
