

Gerald J. Rabago

January 6, 1956 - October 15, 2013

Gerald "Jerry" Jimenez Rabago, 57, born on January 6, 1956, to Joe C. and Elsie J. Rabago in San Antonio, Texas, passed away peacefully with his family by his side on October 15, 2013, after a courageous battle with cancer. Jerry attended Collins Garden Elementary and Burbank Junior and Senior High Schools. He worked at Kelly A.F.B. and FAMSA USA. Jerry proudly served our country and was honorably discharged from the United States Navy, serving as a Boatswain Mate 3rd Class aboard the USS Hepburn. He was an avid sportsman and enjoyed his many fishing and camping trips with his family and his best friends. He was a passionate fan of all sports teams in Texas, especially the San Antonio Spurs and Dallas Cowboys. Jerry touched many lives with his great sense of humor and the ability to bring a laugh or smile to those around him. His sense of humor continued even in his final days. Family and friends would agree that he had an accepting spirit and loveable and trusting personality. Jerry will continue to bring smiles to the faces of his family members and friends as they reflect back on time spent with him. He is loved and will be greatly remembered by his family, Stepmother, Lorraine Rabago, Children, Gerald and wife Amanda, Eric, and Melissa, Mother of his children, Rosalinda, Grandchildren, Clarissa, Brittney, Gerald III, Dakota, Derek, and Draven, Brother, Joe Rabago and Wife, Eugenia, Nephew Jason, Niece, Hilary, Brother, Edward Rabago, Cousin and Best Friend Jesse Rabago Jr., Best Friend Eddie Quintanilla, Compadres, Gilbert Castro and George Gill, as well as many other loving family members and great friends. The family would like to thank all of their friends who included Jerry as part of their family. He will be greatly missed and never, ever, forgotten.
