

Geraldine Gerry Anthony

August 19, 1925 - December 6, 2015

Geraldine Gerri Anthony was born in San Antonio August 19, 1925, to parents Robert George and Lottie Neatherlin Haby. She passed on to a better life Sunday, December 6, 2015.

Gerri met her husband, David S. Anthony, in San Antonio a few years before WWII. They were married in April of 1942. During the war years while David served in the Coast Guard she lived in various places in Texas and the US. After David's return to the states following the Normandy invasion they lived in Long Beach, California, where their son Michael was born. Shortly after, they moved back to San Antonio where David joined his father in business, D.S. Anthony & Sons. Gerri would work there as the bookkeeper for 20 years. In the meantime, they welcomed their second child, Dana. In time, a granddaughter, Michelle, and great-granddaughter, Meagan, joined the family which brought great joy to Gerri.

Gerri is preceded in death by her father, Robert G. Haby; mother, Lottie Haby; her stepmother, Nancy Fitzgerald Haby; brother, Robert O. Haby; husband, David S. Anthony; and son, Michael D. Anthony; and beloved family pets, Dog Two and Papa Kitty. She is survived by her daughter, Dana S. Anthony husband Patrick Barry; daughter-in-law, Argenis Anthony; granddaughter, Michelle D. Anthony; great granddaughter, Meagan Hadjiathanasiou; numerous cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. Special note is given to her friends at The Inn at Los Patios Assisted Living, her family at Chandler Estate Nursing Home as well as Cima Hospice. Additionally, loving gratitude goes to her friend and caregiver, Hilda Reyes. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the charity of your choice.
