“ Dear Mark, I know you probably don't remember me, my mother was Ethelyn Conrad part of tht wonderful Sweet Adeline's quartet, The Texans. Mother and your mother were very close friends during their singing days and I always really enjoyed when your mom would drive out to Castroville to either practice singing or just to visit. She was such a joy and always had a great smile for us. Please know that it was an honor and so very lucky to have her as part of my life. I was so very sorry to read of your brother Lane's passing. So very sad. Prayers are with you and your family. Becky Conrad Holzhaus, Castroville Texas
