“ I stumbled upon this page...I cannot believe you're gone. I'm looking through our old FB messages right now & waiting for you to message back. I remember the first time I met you in new job orientation. You fell asleep & I went to go wake you up. We had the same name & bonded more during Covid, and you made every shift easier to get through. watching movies, talking all night & laughing....and hiding from administration LOL. You saw beyond my diversity and extended a hand to me and never treated me different. You were always KIND. Our history may have been short, but your kindness was lifelong. You encouraged me to go to school every chance you could & made me believe in myself enough. I was unaware of your passing & I wish I could've been there to say goodbye. But ill see ya again my friend.

“ As I post this I think to myself. What things I've done by myself that were firsts. But some firsts in my life you guided me through without you even knowing. Like changing diapers, making baby bottles, losing sleep after working nights taking care of you. So when I had my own it was just a little bit easier. There really isn't any words to express how proud and how much I love you man. I cherished every moment I had with you. We had some good runs my guy, ON AND OFF THE COURT!!! Till we meet again homie, tell Mimo I miss her. Rest Easy Foo!!! Love you , Tio JonJoe

He was literally all of our first baby. Little did he know he was preparing us for when we had own. And when we did he then became the best big BROTHER to our kids. They were more than cousins. He always set the example for them and our kids all looked up to him. He truly was God sent ❤️

“ As I type this with a heavy heart, there are so many memories that I will forever hold in my heart. You were the best big cousin to all of us. You are like an older brother to me who led by example. Your motivational speeches, the goofiness, the competitiveness, the selflessness, and compassion you carried and showed is something I’ll always remember. Thank you for being top notch for us cousins. I’ll miss you calling me “baby cousin”. This isn’t goodbye, this is a see you later. Can’t wait to see you again in heaven better than ever! I love you gibby, always❤️

“ Gilbert was a an Excellent young man. Very kind and joyful his smile and embrace said it all. Loving person. I had the honor of Marrying them April 4, 2024. Gibby had something special I call a Golden ticket to heaven. That is something we all should have in our lives. You never know how life is going to hit us as we are running this race. One thing I know that Jesus Christ called his name and he was ready. This is just a temporary goodbye. For Jesus is the Hope of Glory.

“ Gibby,

I'll never forget the first time I met you, back when Fabe and I had just started talking in 2020 during one of the Mamba games. Right away, I could tell you were such a cool, funny guy. I'm so blessed to have crossed paths with you and Cloey. You were always the life of the party, effortlessly bringing everyone together. The functions were always fun and never dull, filled with nonstop smiles, lots of laughter and good conversations. I've always admired the relationship you had with Cloey—you two were truly the perfect pair. It's heartbreaking to just imagine seeing Cloey without you. Your presence left such a positive impact, and Fabe and I will forever cherish the memories we've shared. I'll miss you and the boys constantly clowning on each other, and all the fun times we've all shared together. Gone, but never forgotten. Rest peacefully, Gibby. You'll always be remembered.
