“ To the Family of Gilbert Navarrette,
I met Gilbert over a year ago. We were introduced by another good friend, Robert Zamora. Gilbert began to tell me about his childhood. He grew up on Wainwright St. the same street I grew up on. He began talking about his uncle Pete and it suddenly dawned on me that it was the same uncle Pete that I had. Although Gilbert and I were not related, we had relatives in common. He was a good man to speak with and he was funny too. I only wish I had met him earlier. May he Rest in Peace.

This was our last dinner at Gilbert's and Victoria's house. He loved to cook and share God's word with everyone who entered his home. Him and Ms. Victoria were such loveable and very humble. Our sincere condolences to the family. We sure gonna miss him, but we know he's now rejoicing with the Lord!
