“ I remember when grandpa used to tell me and Justin if we cleaned his toe toes, he would give us all the change in his pocket....and he would jingle it to make it sound like it was actual change in there....but low and behold, it was his damn car keys!!! Lol ❤️❤️❤️ miss u so much, ur breakfast in the morning, and him telling us "SHIMMY SHIMMY" when me and Justin would get in trouble....just glad u and the love of ur life are together now, peaceful and no longer suffering....just do me a favor....can u tell the late great, Kobe Bryant, ur granddaughter was his biggest fan!!! Maybe y'all can watch over my son Aydan, when he plays one of his basketball games together!!! He's amazing....I wish y'all could be around to see him make it to the NBA!! Rest in peace....u are always l'm my heart and accepted me as ur own and I will NEVER EVER forget that!!!

“ Sympathies to the family. I have such fond memories from working with Gilbert and his sons. Gilbert was a good example for his sons, the people he supervised, and for me personally. Gilbert was always smiling and upbeat. Often he was singing. He was always willing and able to do anything for the company. Every company should be so lucky to have people like Gilbert to work with. I admire him very, very much. May he rest in peace, and God bless his whole family.

“ My sincere sympathy to Sylvia and family. Mr. Portillo was such a generous man with a big heart. His personality and sense of humor were like no other. My parents, Arthur and Jean Latimer loved he and Sylvia very much. I know they are welcoming to heaven.

*Love,
Bill Harris*
