“ I remember us riding along the beach on the tailgate of a truck. You had your feet in the sand and I was afraid we were going to fall off. You always had a way of making the fear go away and making me laugh. You made your feet in the sand come close then wider apart as the truck drove on and said “check it out... fat ladies!”
I also remember you, me and John Salazar wrestling in the yard between our house and grandpas and you making me feel like we were the Main event! Something I do with my son now. Thank you for everything. I will miss you.

“ I'll always remember 2 things about Uncle Gilbert: playing as small children because we were only one year apart, and him repainting my very first car after my only wreck at age 19. He made it look beautiful again!! It was my 1966 Buick Le Sabre that I bought for $600 in 1986!!
