

Gilberto Urias

November 24, 1935 - May 25, 2026

Gilberto Urias was called home to the Lord on May 25, 2026, at the age of 90.

Born on November 24, 1935, in San Antonio, Texas, to Jose and Maxima Raygosa, Gilberto belonged to a generation of men whose strength, sacrifice, and devotion to family helped shape those around them. He was a proud, hardworking man who carried himself with quiet toughness, deep love for his family, and an unwavering sense of responsibility.

Gilberto was preceded in death by his parents; his beloved wife, Conchita Urias; his sons, Ismael Urias and Steve Briones; and multiple brothers and his sister.

He leaves behind a family who loved him deeply and will forever carry his memory with them: his daughters, Kathleen Gusman (husband, Shawn), and Maria Urias-Gutierrez; his son, Joe Urias, (wife, Laura); his brothers, Juan Urias and Hector Raygosa; his grandchildren, Gilberto (wife, Jennifer), Ismael, Mia, Ariana, Analia, and Araceli; his great-grandchildren, Dezirae, Gilbert, Emilee, Seth, and Esmee; and his great-great-grandchildren, Joseph, Josyah, Dezyrae, Jeremiah, Xavier, and Alexander.

Gilberto will be remembered as a man of strength, pride, loyalty, and love for his family. He was part of a fading generation of old-school men who led by example, worked hard, protected their families, and carried themselves with dignity and resolve. The example he set as a husband, father, grandfather, and provider will continue to live on through the generations that follow him.

Though his family mourns his loss, they find comfort in knowing he has been reunited with loved ones gone before him and welcomed into the presence of the Lord.

He will be dearly missed, forever loved, and never forgotten.
